

GE AEROSPACE INTEGRITY GUIDE FOR SUPPLIERS, CONTRACTORS & CONSULTANTS

This guide also applies to Consortium Partners

A Message from GE Aerospace

The General Electric Company (“GE Aerospace”) is committed to unyielding integrity and high standards of business conduct in everything we do, especially in our dealings with GE Aerospace suppliers, contractors, consortium partners, and consultants (collectively “Suppliers”). GE Aerospace bases its Supplier relationships on lawful, efficient, and fair practices, and Suppliers must adhere to applicable legal and regulatory requirements in their business relationships as set out in this GE Aerospace Integrity Guide for Suppliers, Contractors, and Consultants (the “Guide”) in connection with their activities for GE Aerospace.

Suppliers are responsible for ensuring that they and their employees, workers, representatives, suppliers, and subcontractors comply with the standards of conduct set out in this Guide and in other contractual obligations to GE Aerospace. Please contact the GE Aerospace manager you work with or any GE Aerospace Compliance Resource if you have any questions about this Guide or the standards of business conduct that all GE Aerospace Suppliers must meet.

Responsibilities of GE Aerospace Suppliers

You, as a Supplier to GE Aerospace, agree:

Respectful Workplace: To (i) comply with applicable laws and regulations governing wages, hours, overtime, recruitment, and employment contracts; (ii) allow workers to choose freely whether to organize or join associations of their own choosing for the purpose of collective bargaining as provided by local law or regulation; (iii) prohibit discrimination¹, harassment and retaliation; and (iv) treat all workers fairly and with respect.

Environment, Health and Safety: To (i) comply with applicable environmental, health and safety (EHS) laws and regulations and GE Aerospace’s contractor EHS requirements; (ii) provide workers a safe and healthy workplace; (iii) ensure that you are not adversely affecting the local community; and (iv) maintain an environment, health, and safety management system (“EMS”) appropriate for your business which promotes health and safety, environmental stewardship, and pollution prevention by appropriate source reduction strategies. If housing is provided or arranged for employees or contractors, it must meet host country safety standards.

Forced Labor: To respect human rights of your employees and others in your business operations and activities for GE Aerospace, which includes the following: (i) prohibiting the use of forced labor, including prison or indentured labor, and ensuring workers are not subject to any form of physical, sexual or psychological compulsion, exploitation, violence, coercion or inhumane treatment, or other forms of human trafficking; (ii) ensuring that a worker’s identity or immigration documents are not withheld or destroyed; (iii) allowing workers to terminate their employment, for any reason, with reasonable notice; (iv) ensuring that recruitment fees of any type are not deducted from workers’ pay or otherwise charged to workers; (v) prohibiting the use of fraudulent or misleading recruitment practices; (vi) ensuring that, upon end of employment, workers are reimbursed for their return transportation costs

(for workers recruited from outside the country); and (vii) providing workers with terms and conditions of employment in a language the worker understands.

Child Labor and Young Workers: To (i) prohibit the employment of workers under sixteen (16) years of age (or local legal age if higher); and (ii) prohibit the employment of workers under eighteen (18) years of age (or local legal age if higher) for hazardous work.

Working with Governments, Improper Payments and Dealings with GE Aerospace Employees and Representatives: To maintain and enforce (i) a policy requiring adherence to lawful business practices, including a prohibition against bribery; (ii) a prohibition against offering or providing, directly or indirectly, anything of value that would constitute a bribe or a kickback, including but not limited to cash, gifts, entertainment, offers of employment, or other types of benefit, to any GE Aerospace employee, GE Aerospace representative, GE Aerospace customer or to any government official in connection with any GE Aerospace procurement, transaction or business dealing; and (iii) to agree to provide supporting data to GE Aerospace when requested.

Fair Competition: Not to share or exchange any price, cost or other competitive information or engage in any collusive conduct with any third party with respect to any proposed, pending, or current GE Aerospace procurement.

Intellectual Property: To respect the intellectual property rights of GE Aerospace and of third parties, including all patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.

Security and Privacy: To (i) respect individual privacy rights by collecting, handling and protecting GE Aerospace Personal Information responsibly and compliantly; (ii) implement and maintain appropriate physical, administrative and technical controls that meet GE Aerospace standards and are designed to ensure the security and confidentiality of GE Aerospace Confidential Information² in order to prevent the unauthorized or unlawful collection, disclosure, destruction, alteration, modification or accidental loss of GE Aerospace Confidential Information; and (iii) protect Supplier operations and facilities against exploitation by criminal or terrorist individuals and organizations.

Trade Controls and Customs Matters: Not to transfer GE Aerospace technical information to any third party without the express, written permission of GE Aerospace, and to comply with all applicable trade control laws and regulations in the import, export, re-export or transfer of goods, services, software, technology, or technical data including any restrictions on access or use by unauthorized persons or entities.

Controllership and Tax Law: To ensure that all invoices and any customs or similar documentation submitted to GE Aerospace or governmental authorities or audited by third parties in connection with transactions involving GE Aerospace accurately describe the goods and services provided or delivered and the price thereof, to ensure that all documents, communications and accounting are accurate and honest and not to take or participate in any actions that may be viewed as tax evasion or the facilitation of tax evasion.

² GE Aerospace Confidential Information is information created or collected by GE Aerospace that would pose a risk of causing harm to GE Aerospace if disclosed to or used improperly and includes but is not limited to GE Aerospace Highly Confidential Information and Personal Information.

Responsible Mineral Sourcing: To (i) adopt policies and establish systems to procure tantalum, tin, tungsten, gold and other rare earth minerals from sources that do not directly or indirectly finance armed groups in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or other Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas; and (ii) provide supporting data on your supply chain for tantalum, tin, tungsten, gold, or other requested rare earth minerals to GE Aerospace when requested, on a platform to be designated by GE Aerospace.

Conflicts of Interest: Avoid all conflicts of interest or situations giving the appearance of a potential conflict of interest. A relevant conflict of interest typically occurs when personal interests interfere with or appear to interfere with Supplier's ability to perform the work/services without bias. Suppliers are expected to notify GE Aerospace if an actual or potential conflict of interest arises. This includes any situations of potential or apparent conflicts between Suppliers' or their employees' personal interests and the interests of GE Aerospace.

Get Help – How to Raise a Question or Concern

Subject to local laws and any legal restrictions applicable to such reporting, each GE Aerospace Supplier is expected to inform GE Aerospace promptly of any concern related to this Guide affecting GE Aerospace, whether or not the concern involves the Supplier, as soon as the Supplier has knowledge of such an occurrence. GE Aerospace Suppliers also must take such steps as GE Aerospace may reasonably request to assist GE Aerospace in the investigation of any such occurrence involving GE Aerospace and the Supplier. If Supplier's work is related to a U.S. government contract, Supplier must notify GE Aerospace of any alleged non-conformance with this Supplier Integrity Guide.

Prompt reporting is crucial — a question or concern may be raised by a GE Aerospace Supplier as follows:

- By discussing with a GE Aerospace Manager; OR
- By calling the GE Aerospace Integrity Helpline: +1-800-443-3632; OR
- By emailing aerospace.integrity@ge.com OR
- By contacting any Compliance Resource (e.g., GE Aerospace legal counsel).

Note: Suppliers do not need to be certain that a violation has occurred, but rather should raise a concern when there is a good faith belief that something improper, a violation of law or policy, has occurred. GE Aerospace fully examines every integrity concern raised and takes necessary remedial actions where appropriate.

GE Aerospace forbids retaliation against any person reporting such a concern.
